Miss Mildred Pinnell has returned from an extended stay in Portland. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. L. M. Nelson, and Mrs. Nelson's little daughter.

Mrs. James Johns, Sr., will leave this evening for North Dakota, having received a message telling of the death of her brother following an operation for appendicitis.

CLEAR SKIN COMES FROM WITHIN.

It is foolish to think you can gain a good clear complexion by the use of face powder. Get at the root of the trouble and thoroughly cleanse the system with a treatment of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Gentle and mild in action, do not gripe, yet they relieve the liver by their action on the bowels. Good for young, adults and aged. Go after a clear complexion today. 25¢ at your druggist.—Adv.

Russians Score Success.

PETROGRAD, June 6.—Russian forces have won great success along the front from the Pripiet marshes to the Roumanian frontier, according to an official announcement issued here. It is stated that the Russians took 13,000 prisoners.

WILL MY CHILD TAKE DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY?

This best answer is Dr. King's New Discovery itself. It is a pleasant sweet syrup, easy to take. It contains the medicines which years of experience have proven best for Coughs and Colds. Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery longest are its best friends. Besides every bottle is guaranteed. If you don't get satisfaction you get your money back. Buy a bottle, use as directed. Keep what is left for Cough and Cold insurance.—Adv.

Canadians Lose Heavily.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 6.—More than 100 Canadian officers were killed or are missing as a result of the latest battle at Ypres and losses among privates were exceptionally heavy, according to lists made public. It is indicated the engagement was one of the biggest in which Dominion soldiers have participated.

The list is headed by General Victor Williams, wounded and missing, who was commandant of the famous Valcartier camp, and General Mercer also wounded and missing.

The killed include Colonel H. S. Baker, member of Parliament for Thorne, Quebec, and Colonel A. E. Shaw, a cousin of General Ham Hughes. Three battalion commanders are dead, and one missing.

HARDING'S ADDRESS AT CONVENTION

will depart, after our deliberations, solely and proudly a republican, with heart aglow with the party spirit of 1916. And the welcome delegate who emphasizes his progressivism, is expected to do his part in making our party a reflex of the best thought and best intent of sincere commitment to the uplift and progress of the American people, thereby strengthening party purpose instead of magnifying individual belief, and he, too, will find new rejoicing in being a republican. No party can endure which is not progressive. I know the republican party is genuinely progressive as well as effective, else it would not rivet the expectations of the American people today on the most important convention held since the party formulated a new political dealogue and gave to union and nationality the immortal Abraham Lincoln.

Representative Government. In building the surpassing temple of the republic which we have been doing to the astonishment, sometimes the envy, sometimes the admiration of the world, and oftentimes inspiring others by our example, there ever will be modifications and additions to meet the public need and conform to popular ideas. We do not fear to imitate nor fall or originate, but there can be no discord about underlying foundations or essential walls or proven arches or stately columns. Mine is a deep conviction that the founding fathers were divinely inspired, and the wisdom of representative popular government is proven in the surpassing achievement.

It is not alone the miracle of accomplishment which deepens our reverence. It is not alone the conviction that we have builded the first, seemingly dependable, popular government on earth and exalted all its citizenship, which adds to our faith; but we are the oldest of existing civilized nations, with one passing exception, continued under one form of government, and under that form we have developed the highest standard of living in all the world. Surely we must be right.

WHY should't you get a lot of satisfaction out of the OWL? It's certainly made carefully enough, and as for flavor and mellowness—well, just try it! After all, that's the proof.

Recalling that the mightier forward strides have been taken under a half century of republican control, after we led in fixing the indissoluble ties of union, the retrospection, the contemplation and the anticipation combine to fill the republican breast with pride and hope, and trust and faith, and magnify our obligations in this crucial year of our national life.

Much of the discussion of the hour is hinged upon a world at war. We need not wonder thereat, because the enormity of the conflict and the influences of its horrors have set mankind in upheaval. The traditions of civilization have been broken and international laws have been ignored. There is a tidal wave of distress and disaster, there are violent emotions and magnified fears. There are the extremes of incalculable sacrifice and measureless new fortunes—not all American. There are new wonders and new hindrances in commerce, changed balances of trade, new marvels in finance and utterly changed economic conditions. These have attended embarrasments in our foreign relations as difficult as those which the individual citizen experiences whose every neighbor is involved in deadly quarrel. Everything is abnormal except the depleted condition of the federal treasury, which is characteristic of democratic control and the facility of the administration for writing varied notes without effective notice.

Unarmed America. Amid these conditions has stood this unarmed giant, typifying the American republic, neutral and sane, to whom the neutral nations have turned for leadership. Our national selfishness had been proven, our devotion to humanity has been established, our commitment to international justice had long been proclaimed. The world had previously heard the voice of American fearlessness, and all the conditions single us out for leadership among the nations.
